

Alopecia Aeriata

Challenging cases in a exciting therapeutic landscape

Dr Srikumar Goturu MD

A close-up photograph of human skin, showing fine texture and some hair. The skin is a warm, light brown color. The text is overlaid in the center, with the main title in a large, white, serif font and the subtitle in a smaller, white, sans-serif font.

The Challenge of managing Alopecia Aeriata

In the current exciting therapeutic landscape

Burden 18 Male

Self image

Self esteem

More than 10 years

Tried many things

Desperate nothing working.
Trying to conceal hair loss

SALT score and PGA of EB & EL leave unmet needs in estimation of severity & Burden

Before Baricitinib
2022

After Baricitinib 2023 one year
treatment

Before Baricitinib
2022

After Baricitinib 2023 one year
treatment

Alopecia areata especially universalis of long duration is a extremely challenging condition to manage

New era with JAK inhibitors reveal light at the end of the tunnel

Before XXXX

After XXXX 2024 Two months treatment

After XXXX 2024 Two months treatment

After XXXX 2024 Two months treatment

Before XXXX

After XXXX 2024 Two months treatment

Challenges lie in both medical &
non-medical issues

Burden

42 Male

Self image

Self esteem

Two years Duration

Tried many things

The shortcomings of SALT scores and EB,EL PGA's

Before Baricitinib
2024

Five months after Baricitinib

Before Baricitinib
2024

Five months after Baricitinib

Before Baricitinib
2024

Five months after Baricitinib

Before Baricitinib
2024

Five months after Baricitinib

Before Baricitinib
2024

Five months after Baricitinib
The Challenge persists

The landscape of our therapeutic armamentarium is blossoming

Combining severity scores with psychological impact & cost of care
are central factors

Exciting times though

Severity scores for mustache
beard & body hair also needed

The best way to predict the future is to create it